

Portuguese Parliament Assembleia da República

Actions:

Participation in the Earth hour: turning off all lights of the Parliament for one hour

Participation in social campaign “Paper for Food”: Parliament donates used paper to a social partner (a network of food banks) that converts the donations into food supplies for families in need (through a network of waste recycle companies)

530kg of old newspapers and magazines from our library were already donated

This document is part of a series presented at the Conference organised by the INTER PARES programme on 11-12 May 2021, to share good initiatives introduced by parliaments to tackle climate change challenges.

The examples cited in this document were kindly shared by the parliament and edited for presentation by the INTER PARES programme.
